

New Jersey should be allowed to have stricter "do not call" laws than the federal government. I pay for my phone service, it is NOT public domain. I do not want unsolicited calls bothering me in the few peaceful hours I have at home. I like New Jersey's law just the way it is.